

Tina Lund won the Grand Prix Qualifier

Tina Lund and Zamiro were over two seconds faster than the rest in the opening day's Grand Prix Qualifier in the Hamina Bastioni Horse Festival. The Dane wanted to have a nice round with her horse to prepare him for the FEI Nations Cup. A balanced but fast clear round made her both pleased and also the winner of the 145 class.

- I didn't go really fast. It is good to win like this. Zamiro will have tomorrow of and then do the Nations Cup on Sunday. I will do the Grand Prix with A-Dur R. It will be only his second Grand Prix tomorrow, Lund said.

Her fellow countryman Jennifer Pedersen and Rimini 42 came second over two seconds slower than Tina. The Danes have a strong team in Hamina with also Linnea Ericsson and Charlotta Lund in the team.

- We came here to win, she says.
